

THE MAIN QUEST · FIELD GUIDE

IN THE WILD

It's not Backcountry unless it's outside. E-commerce is the bread and butter - but we've also got a dozen brick-and-mortar stores, print ads, and our very own line of high-quality gear, apparel & accessories, each piece with its own story.

reThink Everything

At a time when uncertainty reigns, we're turning to the backcountry more than ever. It's where we go to reset our spirits, pursue happiness, and feel truly alive.

So, this winter, choose nature. Make the great outdoors your playground. Don't hunker down—venture out. And rethink everything, from your daily routine, family dinner, and seasonal traditions to where you go to seek snow.

Backcountry is here to help you rethink how you make that spiritual appointment with nature. Gearheads are our community of outdoor experts, here to personally guide you. With thousands of hours spent in the backcountry, they can point you toward the perfect gear—and give you a packing list and adventure advice to boot.

Are you ready to rethink winter?
